

Medical Centers Preparedness Seminar 2004

On June 3rd 2004 the Miami-Dade County Health Department (MDCHD) Office of Public Health Preparedness along with the Office of Organizational Development (OOD) hosted a seminar at the Doral Golf Resort and Spa in Miami. The scope of the seminar was to share current emergency response plans and projects as they relate to a Weapons of Mass Destruction (WMD's) response capacity within the healthcare and public health system. The event was also an opportunity to foster stronger relationships and build networks with both public and private partner emergency response organizations.

Participants included: Federal, State and County Department of Health officials, Centers for Disease Control (CDC), Jackson Memorial Hospital (JMH) and numerous other medical centers in both Dade & Broward counties, North York Hospital, Toronto, Canada, Miami-Dade Office of Emergency Management (OEM), Miami-Dade Hazmat Unit, Florida Power and Light (FPL), University of Miami and others.
